

HOW THE POINTS SYSTEM WORKS

Upon forfeiture of bail or conviction of a moving violation, points are assessed to the driving record according to the following schedule:

Points	Moving Violation
80	Reckless Driving
35	Speeding 1-10 MPH over
55	Speeding 11-20 MPH over
75	21 MPH Over or more
60	Failure to Yield Right-of-Way
60	Following Too Closely
60	Wrong Way on One-Way Street
50	Red Light
50	Stop Sign
50	Improper Lookout
50	Improper Passing
50	Improper Turn
50	Negligent Collision
40	Other Moving Violations

Note: Points may vary plus or minus 10%, depending upon the severity of the record. Certain serious violations, such as DUI, require mandatory suspension or revocation and are not included in the point system.

Provisional Point System

A driver under 21 years of age who accumulates 70 or more points in three years, may be suspended or denied for 1 month to a year, depending upon the severity of the record.

Regular Point System

A driver 21 years of age or older who accumulates 200 or more points in three years, may be suspended for 3 months to a year, depending upon the severity of the record.
